To Whom It May Concern:

As a retired person who uses Microsoft software, I urge you to settle the DOJ lawsuit.

Years ago when I started working with computers, you had to do most of your own programming. It was time consuming, frequently inaccurate, and totally frustrating. With the Ms windows operating system, I can get up-to-the-minute news, check on my investments, communicate with family and friends, send photos, play games, etc. Last year I was able to get in touch with my buddies from my Navy days and we had a reunion after 47 years.

When you consider the cost of Ms software, compared to cable TV or phone service, it is a real bargain. Let them keep adding features and improving this wonderful product.

Sincerely,

Gary Eisenberger, Age 67
